

2024 ACC Football - Replay Officials Game Day Logistics

School	School's Plans
Instructions: Replay Officials MUST communicate with the school personnel at least two days in advance of game day so the schools can plan accordingly.
Boston College	Boston College will provide a police officer or event security staff member to escort the officials (on foot, golf cart, or via vehicle) to and from their venue parking location. Should the replay officials drive themselves, they will be parked right outside the building so this escort will be on foot.
Cal	Cal will provide a police officer or event security staff member to escort the officials (on foot, golf cart, or via vehicle) to and from their venue parking location.
Clemson	Clemson will continue to work to have the Replay Officials park as close to the stadium as possible. A Clemson Athletics Staff member, assigned by the Assoc AD Operations and/or Director of Operations, will be charged with picking up the Replay officials at their parking spot, taking them to the 105 meeting, press box, and back to the car post-game. This person's cell phone number will be given to the Replay Officials each week, along with the Director of Operations cell phone number. The assigned Staff member will be in contact with the Replay Officials prior to and on game day so they are at the parking location when the Replay Officials arrive.
Duke	Duke will provide one (1) parking spot within the Blue Devil Tower Loading Dock for the Replay Officials. Access to this area is strictly controlled on game day. A security supervisor will be available to escort the replay officials to/from the Loading Dock to the Instant Replay Booth. Contact information for the game manager and command center is provided in the Officials Manual sent to all game day officials on game week. This information is reiterated in our follow-up communication directly to the Replay Officials when we confirm game day parking pass & credential pick-up at the hotel.
Florida State	FSU will provide a police officer or event security staff member to escort the replay officials (on foot, golf cart, or via vehicle) to and from their venue parking location.
Georgia Tech	Georgia Tech will provide a police officer or event security staff member escort the officials (on foot, golf cart, or via vehicle) to and from their venue parking location.
Louisville	Louisville will provide a parking pass for the replay officials to park inside Gate 10 of the stadium perimeter on game day. The replay officials will follow the officials transport van into the stadium. From there, the replay officials will be able to access the 5th floor replay booth on the west side of the stadium via the elevator inside Gate 8. The command center phone number is 502-852-2940.
Miami	Miami will have a Florida highway Patrol officer escort the replay officials back to their hotel post-game. Miami will park the replay officials in Gray Lot, which is a secured lot next to the West Tunnel entrance to the stadium. This lot is closed to the public. A member of Miami athletics event staff will escort the replay officials into and exiting the stadium.
North Carolina	North Carolina will provide a police officer or event security staff member to escort the officials (on foot, golf cart, or via vehicle) to and from their venue parking location.
NC State	NC State will provide a police officer or event security staff member to escort the officials (on foot, golf cart, or via vehicle) to and from their venue parking location.
Notre Dame	Notre Dame will provide two (2) 12 passenger vans that will stage 1hr prior to departure outside of the official's hotel. These vans will then drive the officials to the stadium and will take the on-field officials in the 1st van at the conclusion of the game and the two replay officials in the 2nd van approximately 15 minutes after the game. There will be a police escort from the hotel to the stadium and Notre Dame will add two (2) additional escorts when the officials arrive at the St. Joseph County line.
Pitt	Pitt will have a uniformed officer meet the game officials at the hotel and drive them over to the stadium in a van. The Replay Officials will be welcome to follow the van to the stadium. Upon arrival, both the van and Replay Official vehicle will park within the secured perimeter of the venue (no access to general public). The officer will escort everyone to the official's locker room. From that point on, the Replay Officials can go to the Press Box and return to the locker room / 105 meeting whenever they want to. When they finish their duties after the game, they can simply return to their car and security will open the gate when they are ready to leave.
SMU	SMU will provide a police officer or event security staff member escort the officials (on foot, golf cart, or via vehicle) to and from their venue parking location.
Stanford	Stanford will provide a police officer or event security staff member escort the officials (on foot, golf cart, or via vehicle) to and from their venue parking location.
Syracuse	The two replay officials can ride over in the on-field officials escort pregame and then postgame Syracuse will provide a separate escort for the two replay officials back to the hotel.
Virginia	Virginia will provide the replay officials one (1) parking pass for a parking space that is located within the secured perimeter of the venue. And Virginia will provide an escort to/from the replay officials booth by a member of our event staff.
Virginia Tech	Virginia Tech will provide a police officer or event security staff member to escort the officials (on foot, golf cart, or via vehicle) to and from their venue parking location.
Wake Forest	Pre-Game – Official Replay will pick up the Operation Lot Parking Pass (Green Pass) along with the credentials prior to departing from the hotel. Parking Pass and credentials are dropped off the day prior to the game at the front desk of the hotel. Once in Operations Lot, Rhino Sports & Entertainment Service Security will escort replay officials through East Vehicle Gate to Game Official Locker and stay there until the 105 Meeting. Once the 105 meeting has concluded, Rhino will escort the Replay officials to the Black Lobby to the sixth floor. For postgame, once replay officials have concluded their post-game duties, a Rhino security staff will escort replay officials back to their vehicles in the operations Lot. The Rhino staff is onsite until they identify that the car has left the premises. There will be no traffic escort for the replay official's post-game. Please communicate to Wake Forest the following items: arrival time, if traveling separate, mobility issues, and timing on site for post-game
